

La Playa Cabernet Rose 2018

Region

The Colchagua Valley is a three hour drive south of Santiago and home to many of Chile's finest wineries. The region is influenced by the coastal maritime breezes and micro climate affected by Lake Rapel. The Andes mountains which dominate the country tower over the valley in the distance and are the water source used to irrigate the vines. The region is renowned for many of the finest Merlots, Cabernets and Carmenère.

Producer

The Viña La Playa estate occupies some of Colchagua Valley's most desirable acreage benefitting from its own unique micro-climate due to the Tinguirrica and Limarí rivers which run through the vineyards. Comprising 600 acres and a $10 million state of the art winery, this excellent producer is owned by the Sutil family who make superb modern fruit-driven wines from grapes sourced entirely from the estate. Exciting new vineyard development in the coastal Limari Valley, north of Santiago, is starting to produce some outstanding cool climate varieties. Viña La Playa is passionate about creating high quality, fruit-driven wines whilst remaining committed to the environment.

Tasting Notes

Chile is at the forefront of South American winemaking. This is a delicious dry rose with fruity aromas that include watermelon and fresh cherries, as well as notes of flowers and a touch of candy. On the palate it is tasty with a fresh acidity and a persistent balanced finish making it ideal as an aperitif or with food.

Food

Poached salmon, vegetable terrine and honey glazed chicken.
